GEORGE TOWN: Penang DAP chairman Chow Kon Yeow yesterday launched the Komtar state election centre at the DAP Komtar constituency service centre in Lorong Seratus Tahun.

In his speech, Chow reminded party members not to be complacent, stressing that every vote was crucial to ensure a victory in the state and to capture Putrajaya from Barisan Nasional (BN).

"This is the last lap leading to the 13th general election and it is the most critical period from now on," Chow, who is also Padang Kota assemblyman, said during his speech.

He advised party members not to take things for granted but to work hard for success.

Also present were Komtar assemblyman Ng Wei Aik, Sungai Puyu assemblyman Phee Boon Poh and Pengkalan Kota assemblyman Lau Keng Ee.

Ng, who also addressed the gathering, said the party could not rest on its laurels but had to work hard to face new challenges and to win by a bigger majority.

Other election operation centres are located beside Welcome Delight Cafe (behind Gama supermarket), People's Court and Jalan Kuala Kangsar.

Komtar state constituency is one of three constituencies in the Tanjong parliamentary district. Other state constituencies include Padang Kota Lama and Pengkalan Kota.
