PRIME Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak said he was inspired by the way Malaysians expressed their love for the country in this year's Merdeka Day celebration theme song.

In his Facebook posting yesterday, he praised the unity that exists between Malaysians from all walks of life, making the country the best place on Earth.

"I am inspired when Malaysians express their love for our homeland. Malaysia is the best place on Earth.

"In this rendition of #Merdeka57's theme 'Malaysia/Where love grows', some expressed their fondness for nasi lemak, while others conveyed their deep connection to their hometown. I love our unity amidst diversity. What about you?" Najib said.

He also shared the music video for the country's 57th Merdeka Day celebration theme song, titled Di Sini Lahirnya Sebuah Cinta (This Is Where Love Begins).

The song, performed by Bob Yusof of Akademi Fantasia fame, was composed by composer Sharon Paul with the lyrics penned by Ahmad Petri Yahya.

The three-minute music video features Malaysians from all walks of life expressing what they love about Malaysia.
