KUALA LUMPUR: In conjunction with the Chinese New Year on Feb 19, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak will distribute ang pow (red envelopes) via his "Ah Jib Gor" Facebook account.

"Chinese New Year is coming soon, we will distribute free, special-edition 'Ah Jib Gor' red envelopes to fans," he said in a Mandarin-language statement posted on the Facebook account.

According to the statement, fans only needed to "like" the post and fill in details, such as address, name and telephone number, via the link: www.facebook.com/ahjibgor/app_161683100556760.

The red envelopes feature a caricature of Najib in Chinese traditional attire and a goat, with the words, "Happy Chinese New Year", printed in gold.

Each packet contained 10 envelopes and would be distributed while stocks last, the statement said.

The Chinese will usher in the Year of the Goat on Feb 19.

"Ah Jib Gor", the prime minister's Mandarin-language Facebook page, was set up on Jan 16, 2012, to reach out to Mandarin-speaking social media users.

In Mandarin, Ah Jib Gor means Abang Najib, or Elder Brother Najib. Bernama
