Cheer for 300 homeless folk

KUALA LUMPUR: Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak put an instant smile on 300 homeless people when he handed them food packs and Hari Raya goodies.

Among the recipients were Mamsiye Imamuddin, 32, and one-year-old daughter Nur Izara Batrishah Mohd Yusri.

"I was surprised to see the Prime Minister himself distributing the gifts. These (gifts) will help lessen our burden," she said at the Nur Ramadan programme organised by the Federal Territories Ministry and Kuala Lumpur City Hall at Lorong

Medan Tuanku 2 yesterday evening.

Mamsiye received RM200 in duit raya, clothing and a special gift from Sinotech Property Development Bhd.

Najib, who was accompanied by Federal Territories Minister Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor, also inspected a temporary one-stop centre for the homeless.

Built on Government land, it was set up as a distributing point for food for the homeless in Jalan Chow Kit, Jalan Tuanku Abdul Rahman and surrounding areas.
