Rousing welcome for PM

SEPANG: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Abdul Razak returned home yesterday from a working visit to Milan and New York and was greeted by more than 1,000 people at the Bunga Raya Complex of the KL International Airport.

The special aircraft carrying the prime minister and his wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, touched down at 9.55am.

Supporters had arrived at the complex as early as 7am. They carried banners and posters bearing the words "Selamat Pulang Wira Negara dan Keamanan Sejagat" (Welcome Home National and Universal Peace Hero), "Najib Razak Pejuang Keadilan Terhadap Palestin dan Umat Islam" (Najib Razak Fights for Justice for Palestine and Muslims), "Allah Selamatkan Najib, Allah Selamatkan Palestin" (Allah Protect Najib, Allah Protect Palestine) and "PM Najib Help Palestine, Save Syrian Refugees, We Are With You".

Others greeting the prime minister were Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi, Defence Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Hussein, Communications and Multimedia Minister Datuk Seri Dr Salleh Said Keruak, Health Minister Datuk Seri Dr S. Subramaniam, Transport Minister Datuk Seri Liow Tiong Lai and senior government officials.

Najib had gone on a three-day working visit to Milan from Oct 2 to boost bilateral ties between Malaysia and Italy.

Before that, he was in New York to attend the 70th session of the United Nations General Assembly.

Najib and his delegation comprising several cabinet ministers also had bilateral meetings with several heads of government and national leaders attending the General Assembly. - Bernama
