PUTRAJAYA: Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi officially clocked in as deputy prime minister at Perdana Putra here yesterday.

Zahid, who is also home minister, clocked in his attendance card at 8.30am, shortly after receiving the letter of appointment for his new post from Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak.

He was accompanied by Chief Secretary to the Government Tan Sri

Dr Ali Hamsa to the deputy prime minister's office to begin his first day of duty.

Zahid replaced Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin, who had been dropped from the cabinet line-up on July 28.
