

Newspaper	NEW STRAITS TIMES
Date	14 FEB 2015

POLITICS took a back seat as tens of thousands paid their last respects to Pas spiritual leader Datuk Nik Abdul Aziz Nik Mat, who died on Thursday night. The streets of Pulau Melaka in Kelantan yesterday were blanketed in a sea of humanity, as leaders from both sides of the political divide joined common folk, including non-Muslims, to bid a final farewell to Tok Guru — a statesman, a worthy political adversary and a humble servant of God.