KUALA LUMPUR: Yesterday would have been Malaysia's Father of Development Tun Abdul Razak Hussein's 93rd birthday.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said that although his father was no longer around, he was always in his memory.

"Today marks my late father's 93rd birthday anniversary.

"He is always in my memory. Al-Fatihah," Najib tweeted yesterday.

Tun Abdul Razak, who succeeded Tunku Abdul Rahman as the second Prime Minister of Malaysia, was born in Pulau Keladi, Pekan Pahang, on March 11, 1922.

He died in London of leukaemia on Jan 14, 1976. - Bernama
