KUALA LUMPUR: Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has congratulated Bank Negara Governor Tan Sri Dr Zeti Akhtar Aziz who was awarded the Wharton Dean's Medal recently.

The Prime Minister regarded the award as a recognition to Zeti's contributions in stabilising the national economy.

"Bank Negara Governor, Tan Sri was awarded the Wharton Dean's Medal. This is a high recognition of Tan Sri's contribution in stabilising the Malaysian economy.

"I am confident the fundamentals of the Malaysian economy will remain firm, with the aligning of the Federal Government's fiscal policy and Bank Negara's monetary policy. Congratulations," he said in his Facebook entry yester-

Zeti received the award from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania over her achievements and success in helping the Malaysian economy.

The award is the highest appreciation to an alumni of the university who brings a big impact to the Asian and global economy. —
