The Nottingham Malaysian Society has approved a motion to debate alleged misappropriation of state-investor 1MDB funds and Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak's association to the University of Nottingham (UK) campus at its upcoming annual general meeting (AGM) on March 16.

In a statement today, the committee members were responding to the proposed motion by its member Cassandra Chung, who had also started a petition on Change.org to garner public support on the matter.

"The committee recognises that the society's final stand on the motion should be decided by the vote of our members during the debate and therefore, the committee greatly urges all our members to take notice of this and to attend the AGM to cast a vote on this matter.

"Without expressing if we agree or disagree with Chung's actions, we
