Mahathir-Anwar handshake

In an unprecedented move, former prime minister Dr Mahathir Mohamad appeared in the High Court in Kuala Lumpur to attend his arch-rival Anwar Ibrahim's application to challenge the controversial National Security Council Act 2016.

Anwar said he believes Mahathir's presence in court today showed the former prime minister's support for the reform agenda.

However, Communications and Multimedia Minister Salleh Said Keruak said Anwar would do well to remember what happened soon after his former mentor shook his hand back in 1998, telling the jailed leader that "Mahathir's kiss is a kiss of death"
