Liow: DAP members should quit if they believe in politics of principles

KUALA LUMPUR: DAP has come under fire from MCA for allowing Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad to take centre stage at its national conference.

MCA president Datuk Seri Liow Tiong Lai said DAP leaders were fond of preaching political principles but in reality, they had never practised such values.

“This is the man who has called DAP a racist party - which it still is - but now, Dr Mahathir has said it isn’t.

“This is the man who used the ISA (the Internal Security Act) to put DAP leaders in jail but now, they hug and kiss him.

“The DAP accuses him of being a dictator but now, they hero worship him,” he said in a statement here yesterday.

DAP leaders, said Liow, should be

Liow pointed out, had campaigned hard for PAS, saying that Chinese voters must never forget their alliance.

“The DAP increased the number of PAS MPs and state assemblymen via Chinese voters and now we have this baby called Hadi’s Syariah Bill.

“They are now saying that they are not responsible - what nonsense,” he said.

Liow urged DAP members to quit the party to show that they sincerely believed in the politics of principles.
