KUALA LUMPUR: Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad is still influential among Umno grassroots members, said veteran leader Tengku Razaleigh Hamzah.

“People know who he is and what he has done. They know what happened during his rule and all that. We cannot deny that,” he told reporters at the Parliament lobby here yesterday.

Asked if Dr Mahathir’s stand against Barisan Nasional would affect Umno, Tengku Razaleigh said it would not.

“He is no longer a member of Umno and he has expressed his feelings that (there is) no point being in that party (Umno) as he regards it as one man’s party. That is how he feels.

“His objectives, we know what they are. So, he will try to present and promote his objective so that they are achieved. He will do his best,” he said.
