SEPANG: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak joined national athletes to watch the 2016 Formula One (F1) Petronas Malaysia Grand Prix at the Sepang International Circuit here yesterday.

Najib, who was accompanied by International Trade and Industry Minister Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamed and Sepang International Circuit chief executive officer Datuk Razlan Razali, joined thousands of F1 fans to sing the national anthem.

The athletes, who joined Najib at the track, were divers Pandelega Rinong and Nur Dhabitah Sabri, cyclists Mohd Azizulhasni Awang and Fatehah Mustapa, and Paralympians Muhammad Ziyad Zolkefli, Mohamad Rizduan Mohamad Puzi, Abdul Latif Romly and Siti Noor Radiah Ismail.

The prime minister presented a trophy to Daniel Ricciardo, the winner of the Petronas Malaysia Grand Prix, from Red Bull Racing.

The Australian clocked one hour, 37 minutes and 12.776 seconds to win the 56-lap race ahead of teammate Max Verstappen from the Netherlands.

Championship leader Nico Rosberg from Germany, representing the Mercedes AMG Petronas F1 team, finished third. Bernama
