PARTI Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia president Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin will work with opposition parties to free jailed opposition leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim from prison.

The former Umno deputy president said the public had asked him to help free Anwar, adding that he would work towards achieving this if the supporters agree.

"I received requests from the public to help free Anwar (from prison).

"We need a radical reformation of the electoral system in order to set all Malaysians free.

"Only if there is a change in leadership, will we be able to determine Anwar's fate.

"We must not expect (Prime Minister Datuk Seri) Najib to free Anwar," Muhyiddin said at a seminar organised by PKR.

Muhyiddin said he was "deeply saddened by his (Anwar's) life in prison".

"If we can agree that setting Anwar free is an important goal, then we can come together to reach a consensus on this matter when we form a new government," he said.

Muhyiddin said opposition parties should consolidate and support the newly-formed political party led by him, and chaired by former prime minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

"To solve problems, we must change the government. All the BN leaders should be removed," he said, adding that he would not consider rejoining Umno as the party had been beset by corruption and mismanagement for years.
