DATUK Seri Najib Razak is confident that newly appointed Sarawak chief minister, Datuk Abang Johari Openg, will continue the legacy of the late Tan Sri Adenan Satem.

The prime minister said this included his success in continuing to bring development and prosperity to Sarawak.

"Congratulations on your appointment and all the best in your endeavour as the chief minister of Sarawak," said Najib in his postings on Facebook and Twitter yesterday.

Abang Johari, 66, took the oath of office as the sixth chief minister of Sarawak before Yang di-Pertua Negeri Tun Abdul Taib Mahmud at Astana, the official residence of the head of state, in Kuching yesterday.
