'Dr M should blame PAN for 3-cornered fights'

ARAU: Pakatan Harapan chairman Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad should blame Parti Amanah Negara (PAN) for three-cornered clashes among Barisan Nasional, Pas and the opposition bloc in the 14th General Election (GE14).

Pas deputy president Tuan Ibrahim Tuan Man said this was inevitable after PAN declared it would contest all seats belonging to Pas, and voicing its intention to win Kelantan.

He accused PAN of trying to backstab Pas by pretending to open the door for negotiations, while at the same time wishing to contest seats belonging to the Islamic party.

"The 'attack' on Pas areas... (wanting to take) over Kelantan from Pas... and plans to contest all seats Pas is contesting in — these are the things (declared by) leaders of a party in the opposition.

"How could we possibly work with them?" Tuan Ibrahim said at a press conference for a GE14 rally at Kampung Katong here.

He was responding to Dr Mahathir's recent statement, in which he blamed Pas for "dividing" Malays and said the Islamic party would be a "spoiler" in GE14.
