

PM gets Instafamous Inspiration Award

PUTRAJAYA: Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad on Thursday received the Instafamous Inspiration Award from hurr.tv, a contemporary digital lifestyle hub.

In his acceptance video, Dr Mahathir said the award was in appreciation of his leadership, hard work, dedication and contribution to the people.

"If I'm a good role model, praise be to God. There is no shortcut to hard work. If we love the country, we must work hard to bring the country back to its best."

He said nowadays, information and news could be accessed anywhere with a smartphone and one could be an instant journalist.

"With this power, it is important to be responsible so that the information is accurate and not fake. I thank hurr.tv for this award."

Hurr.tv director Datin Elaine Daly said the award proved that Dr Mahathir was a person who always displayed strength, discipline and determination in providing the best to the people and country.

"We hope this award can be a catalyst to inspire and encourage others, especially the digital generation, to work hard to achieve their dreams and be dedicated, as demonstrated by Dr Mahathir."

Eight others received awards for displaying integrity and commitment in their fields.

Hurr.tv, launched in 2016, has 63 million views and 400,000 followers on YouTube. Its website has 2.7 million views. Bernama
