PETALING JAYA: Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad has pledged that the Pakatan Harapan government will be sensitive to all religions in the country.

The Prime Minister said this after receiving a visiting delegation from the Malaysian Consultative Council of Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Sikhism and Taoism (MCCBCHST) yesterday.

"I received a courtesy call from the members of MCCBCHST at my office.

"Despite our differences, this country has been more peaceful than other countries in terms of racial harmony and religious tolerance.

"The government will be very sensitive towards all religions and, at the same time, each and every one of us must obey the rule of law," he said in a Facebook post.

Dr Mahathir posted four pictures from the meeting with the council's religious leaders.
