PM to serve as morale booster for Pakatan Harapan

BANGKOK: Pakatan Harapan will get a morale booster as Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad will be campaigning for its candidate Karmaine Sardini.

The Parti Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia chairman said: "I will at least once (campaign)."

He said this during a press conference with the Malaysian media in conjunction with the 35th Asean Summit here yesterday.

The Tanjung Piai by-election will see a six-cornered fight involving candidates from Pakatan, Barisan Nasional, Gerakan, Berjasa and two independent candidates.

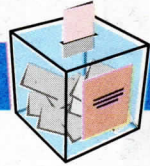

Karmaine, 66, the Tanjung Piai Bersatu division chief, will defend the seat which Pakatan won in the 14th General Election last year against its main contender – Datuk Seri Dr Wee Jeck Seng, 55, of Barisan.

Joining in the fray were Gerakan's Wendy Subramaniam, 38, Berjasa's Datuk Dr Badhrulhisham Abdul

On the decision by the Kuala Lumpur High Court not to impose sanctions on Datuk Seri Najib Razak after his absence at 1Malaysia Development Bhd trial last Thursday, Dr Mahathir said he would not question the decision.

"He is given days off and he doesn't attend court but he can campaign in Tanjung Piai. We don't question the judges, they decide," he said.
