

PM TO MUSLIMS: SPEND MORE TIME READING THE QURAN

Practising what is learnt and spreading knowledge is a sign that we love the Quran, says Muhyiddin

KUALA LUMPUR

PRIME Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin has called on Muslims to spend more time reading and understanding the essence of the Quran which, among others, encourages one to perform good deeds.

In conjunction with the Nuzul Quran celebration on 1442 Hijrah yesterday, the prime minister also posted a call on Facebook for Muslims to appreciate the wisdom behind the religious event and to understand the Quranic verses.

"The Quran is the greatest miracle of Prophet Muhammad SAW sent by Allah SWT as a book of guidance for Muslims. The Holy Quran is a source of knowledge that provides guidance on every facet of human life.

"Reading the holy book, putting what we learn to practice and spreading the knowledge gained for the benefit of mankind is a sign that we love the Quran," he said.

On the 17th day of Ramadan, Muslims commemorate Nuzul Quran, which marks the revelation of the holy book's first verses to Prophet Muhammad.

Muhyiddin also offered his best wishes to Muslims across the country and around the world in observing their daily fast.

Bernama