

The Malaysian Reserve - 13/12/2021
- pg 1

Pic by Hussein Shaharuddin

REDEFINING VALUES: Former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad says it is the value system, not race, that needs correction in order for Malaysia to progress at par with other nations. Speaking at the launch of his new book 'Capturing Hope' in Kuala Lumpur, he says some individuals still choose to stick to the value system that is not progressive and inferior, compared to other nations. SEE P4