

BREAKING CHAIN OF INFECTION

PM THANKS POLICE FOR DOING GOOD JOB

Ismail Sabri expresses appreciation to cops for their role in reining in Covid-19

KUALA LUMPUR

PRIME Minister Datuk Seri Ismail Sabri Yaakob yesterday expressed his appreciation to the police for their role in enforcing the law and ensuring that the Covid-19 chain of infection in the country is broken.

In a post on Facebook on Sunday, he said at a time when the world, including Malaysia, was battling the pandemic, the role of the police had become increasingly challenging.

“My highest appreciation goes out to the police force for not only being responsible for enforcing the law, but also in ensuring ef-orts are taken to break the Covid-19 chain of infection through enforcement of roadblocks and standard operating procedure compliance by their various task force,” he said.

He also commended the police and the Malaysian Armed Forces for protecting the country’s borders from being trespassed by illegal immigrants through Op Benteng, who might bring along the Covid-19 virus with them.

Ismail Sabri also thanked the Home Ministry and Inspector-

General of Police Datuk Seri Acryl Sani Abdullah Sani for raising the grade of the Bera police headquarters from Grade C to B.

“With the new grade, the number of police personnel can now be increased from 300 to between 400 and 600.

“Continue to provide excellent service for the safety and well-being of Keluaga Malaysia Bera, whom we care about,” he said.

The prime minister also congratulated Bera police chief Superintendent Mansor Samsudin and his deputy, deputy superintendent, N. Kumaran, over their promotions. Bernama
