KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Ismail Sabri Yaakob yesterday expressed appreciation to the Deputy Yang di-Pertuan Agong Sultan Nazrin Muizzuddin Shah for exercising the duties of the King.

Ismail Sabri said Sultan Nazrin's views, advice and thoughts have been very useful and would be a guide and reminder for him and the Cabinet in ensuring that the country's administration is always on the right track.

"This is the resolution of the new government under my leadership on the day we took the oath to shoulder the trust of the people with full responsibility," he said when presenting a letter of thanks at a sending-off ceremony at Dewan Seri Bendahara in Istana Negara.

The Sultan of Perak had been performing the duties of the King from Sept 18 during the Yang di-Pertuan Agong Al-Sultan Abdullah Ri'ayatuddin Al-Mustafa Billah Shah and Raja Permaisuri Agong Tunku Hajah Azizah

Aminah Maimunah Iskandariah's visit to the United Kingdom.

Sultan Nazrin ended the duties at midnight yesterday.

Ismail Sabri said he would also continue to resolve the people's problems and strengthen the country's economy, adding that he prays that Sultan Nazrin and the Permaisuri of Perak Tuanku Zara Salim are blessed with guidance and to continue to remain on the throne with dignity and sovereignty. - Bernama
