PUTRAJAYA: There should be no doubt that federal government will deliver its promises to the people.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Ismail Sabri Yaakob said this was reflected in the formation of special committees to monitor initiatives in the 2022 Budget and the 12th Malaysia Plan (12MP).

He said the people wanted to benefit from the pledges announced by the government to elevate their wellbeing and livelihood.

“Therefore, it is our responsibility to make good on our promises to the people, whatever they may be, either it involves the 12MP or other initiatives.

“The people want to see the initiatives or programmes being implemented.

“This is why the government formed special committees to monitor the implementation of the 12MP and the 2022 Budget because the people want to see us deliver our promises,” he said in his New Year speech to Prime Minister’s Department staff here yesterday.

Present were Ministers in the Prime Minister’s Department Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamed (Economy), Datuk Seri Maximus Ongkili (Sabah and Sarawak Affairs) and Idris Ahmad (Religious Affairs), as well as Chief Secretary to the Government Tan Sri Mohd Zuki Ali.

Ismail Sabri said Prime Minister’s Department staff played an important role to ensure the government delivered its promises.

“All eyes are on this department since all key matters, including national policies, are under the Prime Minister’s Department.

“For instance, matters involving the economy and 12MP are under ‘Tok Pa’ (Mustapa).

“This is why we should step forward and set an example not only to other ministries but also to the people,” he said.

Ismail Sabri urged staff in the Prime Minister’s Department to take the lead in promoting the Keluarga Malaysia concept.

“I have noticed the lack of intensity in agencies under this department to promote the Keluarga Malaysia concept.

“Therefore, we must ramp up our efforts to promote the concept.

“How am I supposed to get other ministries to support this concept when this department, which is seen as the key host in promoting Keluarga Malaysia, does not do enough to promote it?

“Therefore, I implore all of you to give your support and hard-work,” he said.
