KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim yesterday received a courtesy call from Tan Sri Michelle Yeoh, fresh off her Best Actress win at the 95th Academy Awards.

Photos shared by the Prime Minister's Office showed Yeoh, in smart casual attire, holding the Oscar statuette.

A video of the meeting was also shared on Twitter, showing Anwar exchanging pleasantries with Yeoh at the Prime Minister's Office in Putrajaya.

"Thank you for bringing this (Oscar trophy)," Anwar said, admiring the statuette.

Anwar, in a statement, said during their meeting, Yeoh shared with him the joys and sorrows of her life's journey towards success.

"She also shared that her Oscar win was not just a meaningful one for her, but also for her family and Malaysians.

"Her achievement has elevated the country's name on the global stage. I wish her good luck and continued success."

Last month, Yeoh won the Best Actress award for her role in Everything Everywhere All At Once.

Ipoh-born Yeoh returned to Malaysia last week.
