

PM pledges better Islamic management

SHAH ALAM: The government is prepared to strengthen the management of Islamic affairs in Malaysia to ensure that it is inclusive for the benefit of both Muslims and non-Muslims, says' Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

He said he was grateful to the Sultan of Selangor, Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah, for chairing the 70th Meeting of the National Council for Islamic Religious Affairs (MKI) here yesterday.

“The govt is determined to ensure that Islamic affairs governance is properly implemented.”

Prime Minister Datuk Seri
Anwar Ibrahim

Anwar, who is deputy chairman of the council, said the MKI meeting clearly conveyed the concern of His Royal Highness on Islamic affairs management.

"The government is determined to ensure that Islamic affairs governance is properly implemented.

"I am confident that with the consent and blessing of Your Royal Highnesses, efforts to strengthen Islamic affairs management institutions at the federal and state levels can be implemented in an integrated and effective manner," he said on Facebook, reported Bernama.