

Anwar being briefed on a second generation settler housing project at the Felda Seberang Taylor multipurpose hall in Kemaman. - BERNAMAPIC

Kemaman win vital to strength of govt: PM

CHUKAI: The Kemaman by-election is crucial to ensure the continued strength of the unity government and its ability to carry out various efforts to safeguard the welfare of the people, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

"Bringing about change? We invite Umno, Barisan Nasional

(BN), Pakatan Harapan, PKR, DAP, Amanah, GPS, GRS and we try to resolve it," he said at the Kemaman by-election Mega Perpaduan Madani ceramah in Geliga here on Wednesday night.

Anwar urged the Kemaman electorate to vote for the BN candidate Jen (Rtd) Tan Sri Raja Mohamed Affandi Raja Mohamed

Noor, who has contributed significantly to the country, in the by-election tomorrow.

He said Raja Mohamed Affandi, who is a former defence force chief had to overcome various challenges before being appointed to the highest position in the armed forces. - Bernama

Resolving Felda housing woes a priority: PM

CHUKAI: The government will give priority to resolving the housing woe of the second and third generation Felda settlers, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

Anwar said a number of proposal had been received in view of the housing woes of Felda settlers. All the proposals would be studied before remedial action can be taken.

"There are some who claimed that only make announcements but no action. However, when I announced about (eradicating hardcore poverty the initial count was 130,000 (hardcore poor) families. Now we have only 11,000 to 12,000 families. We can resolve these numbers by the year-end

"Malaysia is the first country in the world to resolve the issue of hardcore poor," Anwar said in his speech where attending an event with the Felda and Ketengah communities at Felda Seberang Taylor here on Wednesday night.

He also gave an assurance that the government will continue to uplift the image of Felda to safeguard the prestige of the Malay community.

"Within one year, the unity government has carried out many good initiatives.

"Believe me, we will continue to bring about changes within our capabilities," he said.

Anwar reiterated his commitment to not tolerate or compromise any attempts to misuse power under his administration. - Bernama