THE federal cabinet's working retreat yesterday focused, among others, on strengthening cooperation and unity among the ministers.

The Prime Minister's Department, in a statement, said the retreat, held at the Seri Perdana Complex here, was attended by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, 27 other cabinet ministers and 10 senior government officers.

"The programme was held to strengthen and fine-tune cooperation and unity among federal cabinet ministers in the unity government.

"In line with the prime minister's wish to realise the realignment and reform agenda in the federal administration, the retreat programme featured special briefing sessions on key aspects of strengthening service delivery and ethics, as well as administration of the government machinery.

"These aspects covered subjects such as government structure and public administration, financial management, and government acquisitions.

"Also included were international assemblies and national interest, government protocol and professionalism, holistic development, economic scenarios and challenges, as well as a briefing on media communications," the statement said.

Chief Secretary to the Government Tan Sri Mohd Zuki Ali also gave a briefing on the ministers' key performance indicators (KPIs).

Meanwhile, Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid

Hamidi said on social media that the retreat programme was also held to discuss the unity government's direction.

"Apart from discussing the direction, the ministers also worked on the setting of KPIs for each ministry."
