PRIME Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim has called on a Twitter user to apologise for his insensitive remarks about Pas president Tan Sri Abdul Hadi Awang's deteriorating health.

In a tweet, Anwar expressed his disappointment with the Twitter user, who is believed to be a supporter of his party.

“I condemn and am upset by the disrespectful remarks made by Zaki Yamani, and I order him to apologise immediately.”

Twitter user @Zaki_Yamani had said he hoped Hadi's life would end.

He had allegedly made similar remarks about former prime minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad.
