

Apologise, PM

tells Twitter user

KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim wants a social media user who made rude comments about PAS president Tan Sri Abdul Hadi Awang, who was hospitalised, to apologise immediately.

In a tweet on Saturday, Anwar expressed regret over the individual's action.

"I regret Zaki Yamani's rude behaviour and ordered him to apologise immediately."

The social media user, through his Twitter account @Zaki_Yamani stated that he prayed for Abdul Hadi to die.

He also wished the same for former prime minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

In a message on his Facebook page, Abdul Hadi's son Muhammad Khalil said his father's health was deteriorating.

He also asked the public to pray for his father's recovery.
