

PM proud of strong ties with Indonesia

PUTRAJAYA: The bilateral ties between Malaysia and Indonesia are at a stage that both countries can be proud of, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

He said this was a result of a close and family-like relationship between him and Indonesian President Joko Widodo, or Jokowi as he is popularly known, as well as government officials, which had seen several long-standing issues successfully resolved, including maritime border disputes between the two countries in the Sulawesi Sea.

"The enhanced understanding and cooperation forged within a short time with Indonesia is extraordinary, and will certainly bring about many positive benefits for the people and the country," said Anwar after holding a four-eyed meeting with Jokowi at the Seri Perdana Complex yesterday. - Bernama
