

Dream of duet with Anwar comes true

ZAKI Yamani, the son of pop king Datuk Jamal Abdillah, has always wanted to sing a duet with Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

The 17-year-old had his wish fulfilled recently when he sang Tan Sri P. Ramlee's hit song Azizah with Anwar at the Malaysia Madani Hari Raya Open House in Dewan Al Muktafi Billah Shah, Universiti Sultan Zainal Abidin (UniSZA) in Kuala Terengganu.

"Thank God I finally got to meet the PM and sang with him. A long-time wish has finally come true. I'm the happiest man today," said Zaki in an interview yesterday.

Zaki added: "I've always known that the prime minister and his wife, Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail, love P. Ramlee's iconic song Azizah. So I spent two hours memorising it."

While it was an honour to sing with Anwar, Zaki said that what truly moved him was seeing many of the 15,000 guests sing along with them.

"This is one moment in my life that I will never forget. Best of all it took place during Hari Raya, my favourite time of the year."
