'Gaza invasion will affect Arab countries'

From front page He added that the conflict in Gaza is worrisome because if Israel persists in invading and capturing the territory, it would lead to a prolonged crisis involving many Arab countries.

Anwar subsequently departed from Istanbul to continue his working visit in Egypt, where he met President Abdel Fattah El-Sisi, with humanitarian issues to continue being the main topic of discussions.

He is also scheduled to pay a courtesy call on the Grand Imam of al-Azhar Sheikh Ahmed el-Tayeb before leaving for Kuala Lumpur. - Bernama
