'Anwar' film top on Netflix

ANWAR: The Untold Story, which premiered on Netflix last Thursday, is at the top of the list of most-watched shows on the streaming platform in the country, surpassing The Pope's Exorcist.

Executive producer Zulkiflee Anwar Haq (a.k.a. Zunar the satirical cartoonist) said the positive response meant that the film, produced by Yusrich Global, had been well received by viewers.

"Many may not have had the chance to catch it at the cinemas when it opened in May, as some were preparing for the state elections (last month).

"Unlike other types of movies, biopic films need to be watched several times before viewers get their message.

"So to make it available for multiple viewings on streaming platforms such as Netflix is the right move," Zunar was quoted in the report.

Zunar, who is the film's screenwriter, said as the movie was a form of documentation of the political journey of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, it would soon be screened at higher learning institutions as a reference for students.

The movie is directed by Indonesian director Viva Westi, and stars Farid Kamil as Anwar and Indonesian Acha Septriasa as Anwar's wife, Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail.
