URGENT CALL TO ACTION

THE PM's address to the UN General Assembly covers a gamut of pressing concerns, including Myanmar, unilateralism, big-power rivalry and the climate crisis. Analysts welcome his blunt criticism of the hypocrisy in the treatment of the Palestinian issue, and say his remarks on Islamophobia can galvanise the global community into action.

INTERVIEW WITH AMANPOUR

- PM says he respects consensus of Malaysians on non-acceptance of public displays of LGBTQ+
- PKR member criticising government policy shows reform agenda very much alive
- Prosecution of Sanusi is about protecting the royal institution, not about cracking down on opposition
