KUALA LUMPUR: Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim's resolute efforts to successfully reunite the family of Cinta Gaza Malaysia CEO Muhammad Nadir Al-Nuri Kamaruzaman shows the prime minister's deep concern for the welfare of the people, said Minister in the Prime Minister's Department (Religious Affairs) Datuk Dr Mohd Na'im Mokhtar.

He said the mission to reunite Muhammad Nadir Al-Nuri's family, previously in Palestine, also highlighted the wisdom of Anwar's globally respected leadership.

"The Prime Minister's Department (Religious Affairs) expresses our utmost appreciation for the prime minister's determination to successfully reunite Nadir Al-Nuri's family," he said in a statement.

Mohd Na'im also called on all quarters to continue supporting Anwar and expressing solidarity in the struggle for peace and well-being in Palestine.

"In this blessed month of Syawal, let us strengthen our unity and pray to Allah for blessings and the well-being of the Palestinian people."

Muhammad Nadir Al-Nuri, in his post on Facebook and Instagram, titled "183 Long Days", revealed that Anwar played a crucial role in the mission to bring his family out of Gaza, Bernama reported.

He said he was contacted by the prime minister's political secretary Farhan Fauzi a day before Eid, to go to a specific location along with Malaysian Consultative Council for Islamic Organisations CEO Dr Ahmad Sani Abdul Alim Araby, where he discovered that his family was waiting for him.

Muhammad Nadir Al-Nuri also described the mission to bring his family out of Gaza as a "crazy mission", as it was not easy to evacuate his family amid rocket fire, bomb blasts and ongoing tensions at the border.
