PM committed to ensuring schools well maintained

KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim is committed to ensuring schools in the country are in good condition.

“I want to make sure that every school is well maintained so that our children can focus on their studies,” he said in a Facebook post yesterday.

Attached to the post were pictures of his political secretary, Ahmad Farhan Fauzi, checking the facilities at SMK Sultanah Hajjah Kalsom in Kuantan during a visit to Indera Mahkota on Anwar’s behalf recently.

Farhan spoke to students, their parents and teachers at the school.
