

Forging ahead

Relations between Malaysia and India have entered a new phase with the Comprehensive Strategic Partnership (CSP). Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, who described India as 'a great and true friend' to his counterpart Narendra Modi during their meeting, says the elevation of ties is an acknowledgement of the long-standing friendship between the two nations that goes back to their respective first prime ministers — Tunku Abdul Rahman and Jawaharlal Nehru. > See reports on page 2