

Help elevate status of nation, youths urged

PUTRAJAYA: Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim has expressed confidence that Malaysia has the potential to continue progressing and called on the younger generation to join efforts to elevate the status of the nation.

"I want to continue serving so that future generations are more assured of our nation's elevated status. As an elder, all I can do is urge you to take action to ensure we reach that level," he said at the monthly assembly with Finance Ministry staff yesterday.

Anwar said he holds the trust placed in him by the people and is committed to fulfilling his responsibilities to the nation.

He also said several key measures have been taken to strengthen the country's economic foundation, including preventing theft, leakage and corruption.

"That is why I have taken a firm stance against corruption." - Bernama
