

100,880 PARTICIPANTS

PM: ALL HANDS ON DECK FOR TVET TRAINING

Effort to be carried out in a five-year period, including job offers with a target minimum monthly salary of RM3,000

PUTRAJAYA

PRIME Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim called for contribution and participation from all quarters, including Chinese and Indian chambers of commerce, to help train 100,000 Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) participants.

Speaking at the closing ceremony of the Bumiputera Economic Congress 2024 yesterday, he said the government was committed to collaborating with government-linked investment companies, government-linked companies and selected private bodies.

He said this effort should be carried out within a five-year period, including providing job offers with a target minimum monthly salary of RM3,000.

“So far, the companies involved include Petronas, Sime Darby, Malaysian Resources Corp Bhd,

KONGRES EKONOMI BUMIPUTERA 2024

Tenaga Nasional Bhd and Telekom Malaysia.

“Only through adequate training opportunities and meaningful employment can we change the lives of the Bumiputeras, including those in rural areas such as families of Federal Land Development Authority settlers and fishermen’s children.”

Anwar asked for all parties to pool their resources to achieve the goal of training and providing employment opportunities with equitable salaries to 100,000 trainees.