

Insights

into the future

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim launches Postnormal Times Madani Exhibition with call for all Malaysians to explore its offerings, while expressing hope it would provide public with knowledge and ensure brighter future for generations.

Report on page 3

Retiree on expedition to visit 106 countries pleasantly surprised to find South American nation he earlier thought was 'hostile' abounds with friendly and generous people. page 6

Anwar looking at a painting at the exhibition. Also present were (from second left) Berjaya Group founder and adviser Tan Sri Vincent Tan, Deputy Entrepreneur Development and Cooperatives Minister Datuk Ramanan Ramakrishnan, Centre for Postnormal Policy and Futures Studies (CPPFS) executive assistant director Scott Jordan, former education minister Dr Maszlee Malik and CPPFS director and exhibition curator Prof Ziauddin Sardar. - AMIRUL SYAFIQ/THESUN