FORMER prime minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak expressed gratitude for the support he received on Wednesday when he appeared in court for the ruling on his 1Malaysia Development Bhd (1MDB) corruption case.

In a Facebook post, Najib thanked supporters, saying their presence at the Kuala Lumpur High Court reflected that they "still remember and miss" his contributions and policies.

"This is what true friendship means.

"At this moment, what else is there to offer but appreciation and gratitude?

"May these friendships in this world be carried forward as a valuable asset in the hereafter."

Najib added that true friends were hard to find in challenging times.

"Many show up only when they seek something or when things are easy. Some are two-faced, but life itself is a lesson.

"Amid today's bitterness, there is a glimmer of sweetness and appreciation."

Najib, 71, faces four charges of using his position to receive RM2.3 billion in bribes from 1MDB funds, along with 21 money laundering charges involving the same amount.

On Wednesday, High Court judge Datuk Collin Lawrence Sequerah ruled that the prosecution had proven a prima facie case against Najib, as he was the ultimate decision-maker in 1MDB and ordered him to enter his defence.
