

Anwar being received by Shehbaz on arrival at Nur Khan Airbase in Rawalpindi on Wednesday. - BERNAMAPIC

Anwar on three-day state visit to Pakistan

ISLAMABAD: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim began the second day of his three-day state visit to Pakistan with a restricted meeting with his Pakistani counterpart Shehbaz Sharif, at the Pakistan prime minister's official residence yesterday.

The two leaders are expected to discuss various bilateral issues and initiatives to elevate the long-standing diplomatic relations established between the two countries when Malaysia gained independence in 1957.

Anwar, who is making his first visit to the South Asian country since assuming office in November 2022, arrived at Pakistan Air Force's Nur Khan Airbase in Rawalpindi at about 8.10pm (11.10pm Malaysian time) on Wednesday.

Both leaders are also slated to witness the signing of an MoU between the Malaysia External Trade Development Corporation and the Trade Development Authority of Pakistan as well as an MoU between the Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission and the Pakistan Telecommunication Authority on the development of the digital sector. - Bernama