PETALING JAYA: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim's 78th birthday yesterday was marked by tributes from ministers who offered prayers, praise and a symbolic gift celebrating unity.

Housing and Local Government Minister Nga Kor Ming commemorated the occasion by presenting Anwar with a specially commissioned sculpture - Rise Up Together, symbolising national unity and harmony in diversity.

"It is a great honour for me to present him with this meaningful gift," Nga said.

Minister in the Prime Minister's Department (Religious Affairs) Datuk Setia Dr Mohd Na'im Mokhtar offered heartfelt prayers for Anwar's well-being, resilience and wisdom.

"Our prayers are always with Datuk Seri for strength in leading the nation and for progress of our beloved country," he said, expressing hope for a prosperous, harmonious and competitive Malaysia Madani.

Entrepreneur Development and Cooperatives Deputy Minister Datuk Seri Ramanan Ramakrishnan said:

"Happy birthday, Boss! May the honourable prime minister and PKR president always be healthy, blessed and continue to lead the nation with wisdom."
