Muhyiddin denies stealing Bersatu funds

KUALA LUMPUR: Parti Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia president Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin has denied allegations by Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad that he stole party funds and kept the money at his home.

Muhyiddin, who is Perikatan Nasional chairman, described Dr Mahathir's claim as reckless and unfounded.

"I categorically deny the allegations made by Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad in a video, claiming that I stole party funds and kept them at my home.

"These are wild and unfounded accusations," Muhyiddin said in a Facebook post yesterday.

"I have never stolen party funds.

All contributions to the party are deposited into the party's account, which is managed transparently by the secretary-general."

Muhyiddin said the allegations might have been based on incorrect information from irresponsible parties.

"As a statesman, he should have sought clarification from me before making any accusations."

Muhyiddin said he respected the elder statesman, noting that he had supported 100-year-old Mahathir's efforts to promote Malay unity.

"Accordingly, I do not intend to take legal action against him."
