PETALING JAYA: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim has voiced concern Over renewed armed clashes between Cambodian and Thai forces along their shared border, adding that escalating tensions could undo years of diplomatic progress.

"I offer my condolences to the families of those who have been killed or injured."

"The renewed fighting risks unravelling the careful work that has gone into stabilising relations between the two neighbours."

He emphasised that both Thailand and Cambodia are close partners of Malaysia and key members of Asean.

He urged the governments to exercise maximum restraint, maintain open communication channels and make full use of existing regional mechanisms to manage the situation.

"Malaysia stands ready to support steps that could help restore calm and avert further incidents," he said, adding that Asean cannot afford for long-standing territorial disputes to spiral into repeated confrontations.

"The immediate priority is to halt the fighting, safeguard civilians and return to a diplomatic path supported by international law and the neighbourly spirit on which Asean depends."

International media reported that Thai army spokesman Major-Gen Winthai Suvaree confirmed air operations along the disputed frontier, following accusations from both sides of ceasefire violations.

He said Thai forces targeted several Cambodian positions to neutralise ongoing cross-border fire.
