

King enjoys nasi lemak breakfast with PM

PETALING JAYA: His Majesty Sultan Ibrahim, King of Malaysia, started the day with a nasi lemak breakfast with Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

They dined at the Nasi Lemak Burung Hantu outlet near Masjid India in Kuala Lumpur.

Photos of them eating together have since been uploaded on His Majesty's official Facebook page.

"His Majesty and the Prime Minister enjoyed the dishes at the restaurant located in Semua

House. The public also took the opportunity to greet and take photos with His Majesty.

"His Majesty also graciously spent time engaging with children and inquiring about their well-being," the post read.

A Malaysian favourite:
Sultan Ibrahim sharing a nasi lemak breakfast with Anwar at Nasi Lemak Burung Hantu in Masjid India, Kuala Lumpur.
- Photo from Sultan Ibrahim Sultan Iskandar's Facebook page