

Anwar in Davos to attend WEF Annual Summit

DAVOS (SWITZERLAND): Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim arrived here on Monday for a three-day working visit to attend the high-level World Economic Forum (WEF) Annual Summit 2025.

Anwar, who is also finance minister, will join government and business leaders as well as civil society officials in the Alpine resort town to address key global and regional challenges.

The aircraft carrying Anwar landed at Zurich International Airport at 6.25pm local time and he arrived here at 9pm.

At the summit, Anwar will be involved in several business meetings with leaders of multinational companies, including AstraZeneca, DP World, Medtronic, Nestle, Google, Fortescue and TotalEnergies.

He will then participate in a "Country Strategy Dialogue" with business leaders from global companies to share Malaysia's strategic priorities and initiatives in trade and investment.

Anwar will also hold a media briefing titled "Unlocking Asean's Digital Future: Driving Inclusive Growth and Global Competitiveness", focusing on the Asean Digital Economy Framework Agreement and digital economy transformation opportunities as well as attend the Asean Leaders for Just Energy Transition meeting.

He will also attend the opening dinner hosted by WEF founder and chairman of its board of trustees, Klaus Schwab.

On his final day here, Anwar will receive a courtesy call from Schwab before engaging in a session titled "A conversation with Anwar Ibrahim" and then proceed with business meetings with TotalEnergies as well as a bilateral meeting with his counterpart from Libya, Abdul Hamid Dbeibah.

He is also expected to participate in the WEF leaders luncheon and deliver the keynote address at an Asean plenary session titled "Even Stronger Together", at which he will discuss the priorities of the Asean-Malaysia Chairmanship 2025 and Asean's important role in the region in shaping the global economic landscape.

He will wrap up his working visit to the WEF with a bilateral meeting with Netherlands Prime Minister Dick Schoof, and then leave for Kuala Lumpur, concluding his official visit to four countries. - Bernama
