Anwar to meet Modi, Ethiopian leader, Embraer CEO at BRICS Summit

RIO DE JANEIRO: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim is scheduled to meet his counterparts from India and Ethiopia here.

The meetings will take place on the sidelines of the BRICS Leaders' Summit later today, Malaysian time.

Anwar, who arrived here on Saturday, will meet Indian premier Narendra Modi at the Museum of Modern Art, after delivering his National Statement at the summit.

Both leaders met during the 21st Asean-India Summit in Laos last year.

Anwar will then meet his Ethiopian counterpart, Abiy Ahmed Ali.

The Prime Minister will be accompanied by Transport Minister Anthony Loke and Investment, Trade and Industry Minister Tengku Datuk Seri

Zafrul Tengku Abdul Aziz at the meetings.

It will be a busy day for Anwar as he starts his second day in Brazil's second biggest city with a meeting with aerospace firm Embraer's president and CEO Francisco Gomes Neto.

Headquartered in Brazil, Embraer is a leading aircraft manufacturer.

It participated in the Langkawi International Maritime, and Aerospace Exhibition 2025 (Lima 2025) in May.

According to a Bernama report, Anwar is also scheduled to receive a courtesy call from New Development Bank president Dilma Rousseff.

Malaysia's participation in the summit is in its capacity as a BRICS Partner Country and as Chair of Asean 2025.

Malaysia officially became a BRICS Partner Country on Jan 1.
